Who can see beyond the shame
Through the darkness and the pain
There is only one
Who can wipe away our tears
When hope is gone and gives way to fear
There is only one

Jesus, You have saved us
There is no one like You God
There is no one like You God

And take the cross to set us free
There is only one

There is no one like You God
There is no one like You God
Jesus You redeem us
There is no one like You God

You stand in victory
There is no higher name
